- II. Introduction of Host Agency - Welcome Victoria Mathews, Mighty Eighth Air Force Museum
- III. Report from treasurer - membership dues - invoices
 - a. It's time to pay dues for 2014. Catherine has created an invoice and all you have to do is check off individual or group. We have 460.00 in the bank now. That money as well as current dues will help support our Winter Retreat. By paying your dues you will get free admission to Winter Retreat and also access to the secure part of our new website.
- IV. Website - www.ccpioa.org
- V. JIC Exercise - March 26 - After Action Report
 - a. It was decided that we want to do another exercise in the near future. Everyone who participated said they benefited from the last one. Gena Bilbo, Nancy Gould and Dina McKain volunteered to be on the planning committee.
- VI. Fall Retreat -
 - Due to speaker conflict and finding an available date for the Hoskins Center at Memorial, we had to move the retreat to December 13. It is a Friday and it will be half a day. Please mark your calendars!!!! Our speakers will include the PIO from the Seminole County Sheriff's Office and how they handled the George Zimmerman trial, the GA Forestry Division, Jan Smith with WTOC, and more! It was suggested David Eshanipoor with Effingham County SO talk about how his agency handled the Heidt murders.

VII. Announcements

- a. We are trying to pick a day that works for everyone. Bret Bell with the City of Savannah can't meet on Thursdays that there are city council days. The majority of those in attendance like Thursdays. Kelly spoke with Bret and suggested we make sure we schedule meetings on days they don't have city council meetings. Bret said that works great. Kelly is going to send a survey out to see if people like mornings or afternoons better. It was mixed at the last meeting.

VIII. Next Meeting - October 10th, time TBD, Savannah City Hall, Hosted by Bret Bell
