It's Easter time,
 What a lucky group.
 We're going to dine,
 On Jellybean soup.
 We'll cook those beans,
 Till they're red hot.
 Add M&M's--
 To fill up the pot.
 We'll eat that soup.
 And when we're through,
 We'll have our tasty
 Marshmallow stew.
 For dessert we'll have a Tootsie Roll
 And tomorrow it will be Chocolate casserole!

Love is the Spice of Life

I give this gift to brides or new couples of any kind. I give an empty spice bottle or shaker with the word "LOVE" on it. I print LOVE on a clear label and put that on if the holder is large enough.. or paint it on if you are a painter...

LOVE

Ingredients: Faithfulness, Gentleness, Goodness, Joy, Kindness, Patience, Peace, Protection, Trust, Truthfulness and Unselfishness.

Then I attach this card:

THE STORY BEHIND "LOVE"

For many years a man watched his wife take a locked box down from the cupboard. She would unlock the box, take a pinch, sprinkle it over whatever she was cooking, relock the box and return it to its place. One day, while his wife was away, his curiosity got the best of him. He went to the cupboard, took the box down and opened it. To his surprise it was empty! He turned it over and on the bottom was written the word "LOVE". So, though not in your recipe book, into everything you cook, put in a big pinch of "LOVE". Keep your "LOVE" within easy reach and use generously.
